

* LADDER SAFETY PROGRAM *

"Work-related ladder falls result in one death and more than 180 nonfatal injuries every two days." As employees, it is a requirement you know how to choose, use, inspect, and report unsafe ladders.

Photo: Bing Images & CTC

Establishing a written ladder safety and inspection program with responsibilities, ladder inspections, employee training, and documentation is part of our overall Safety Management System, a way to protect personnel and prevent ladder incidents and injuries.

References:

29 CFR 1910.30, Training requirements
29 CFR 1910.23, Ladders

Ensure a qualified person provides training to each employee who requires training under Subpart D; Training must include the recognition of fall hazards and procedures to minimize hazards.